Earth's crust

The outermost shell of the Earth is the crust. It is not an unbroken covering, but huge plates of rock that drift over a deep layer of semisolid rocks, called the mantle.

THE OLDEST PARTS OF EARTH'S CRUST ARE ABOUT 4 BILLION YEARS OLD.

SKIN OF AN APPLE. SOME PARTS OF IT ARE ONLY 5 MILES (8 KM) THICK.