

Turtle travels

Mummy sea turtles look for the perfect beach to lay their eggs. Most of them travel back to the beach where they were born!

I can hold my breath underwater for up to seven hours!

2

After about six weeks, the eggs hatch and the babies crawl out.

3

The turtles dig themselves out of the nest and rush to the safety of the sea.