

Cattle egrets are birds that perch on big animals such as buffalo and hippos. The egrets eat insects that bother or disturb the big animals.

Ostriches have great eyesight, and zebras have a strong sense of smell. Together, they make an effective team looking out for danger.