

Feathered friends

Birds can look very different from each other, but they all have wings, feathers, and beaks, and they all lay eggs. They can't all fly though.

Hollow bones

Most birds have bones full of little air pockets. This makes birds light enough to fly. The skeleton of most birds weighs less than all their feathers.