

TWO-MICRON ALL-SKY SURVEY (2MASS)

This panoramic view of the entire sky at near-infrared wavelengths illustrates the distribution of galaxies beyond the Milky Way. The plane of the Milky Way runs across the center of this projection. Galaxies are color-coded by their red shift, from blue (the nearest), to green (intermediate distances), to red (the farthest). The purple area at top center right is the Virgo Cluster of galaxies.

