

fossil

remains of a prehistoric animal or plant preserved in rock fresco

wall painting created on wet plaster

frontier

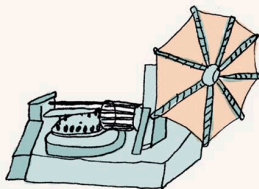

border between two places or things

gentleman

man born into a family of high social standing gristmill

machine that grinds cereal grains into a powder that can be used to make bread grove

small area with trees

Holy Sacrament

bread and wine taken by Christians in remembrance of the Last Supper of Jesus and his followers

horizon line

where land and sky meet

hydraulics

science that studies the power of moving liquids

illegitimate

not recognized by law

lime

substance made by heating limestone or shells, used in mortar, plaster, and pottery lofty

high in status