35 Texturing the paper

Dip a dry paintbrush into thick paint. Brush stripes across some paper so that you see the brushmarks.

The crayon resists the paint.

Use a wax crayon to draw lines or patterns on a piece of paper. Then, brush watery paint on top.

Use pencils to scribble lines and swirls on top of painted paper.

Wings cut from scribbled paper.

37

Busy bees

Draw the stripes on a bee's body with a black pencil.

38

Reeds

Use paper from magazines or textured paper for the tops of reeds.

36

Sitting frog

Cut separate shapes for a body, legs, eyes and mouth, then glue them together.
