

Washing on a line

All the clothes on these washing lines are made from scraps of patterned paper and pieces of material. The washing lines were cut from brown paper from a large envelope.

263 House

Fill in alternate stripes on graph paper with a pencil. Cut a strip of paper and glue it on top. Cut out some windows. Then, cut a strip of paper for the roof and draw tiles.

265 Washing line

Cut thin, curved shapes and glue them onto your picture. Glue the clothes along them, then draw little lines to attach them to the washing line.

266 Socks

Cut a pair of socks from a scrap of material. You could even cut them from an old sock, itself.

These window panes were drawn with a felt-tip pen.
