

North America: culture

Did you know?
Mules deliver mail to people living at the bottom of the Grand Canyon in the US.

US and Mexico

The US and Mexico are large, modern countries. But they both have strong traditions and cultures.

New York

This is the largest city in the US and is the country's business center.

Silicon valley

Silicon chip

Industry

The US's famous computer industry is in Silicon Valley, California.

Farming

The prairies in central America are very fertile. They are used to grow wheat and other cereals.

Culture

Baseball is the national sport of the US.

Hollywood in Los Angeles is the film capital of the world.

Rock and roll was invented in the US.

Jazz music began in the southern states of America.

Ancient ruins

Ancient temples were built in Mexico many hundreds of years ago.

Traditional crafts

Many traditional goods are still made throughout the US and Mexico.

Mexican masks

American quilt

Navajo rug

Tourism

Millions of people visit North America every year to see its famous landmarks and scenery.

Florida

White House

Las Vegas

