

Ancient Egypt

Writing

Egyptian writing was made up of rows of pictures called hieroglyphs.

About 5,000 years ago, Egypt was one of the most powerful and advanced countries in the world.

Pyramids pointed to heaven.

Pharaohs were buried inside.

Nile River

Egyptian farmers grew plenty of food on the banks of the Nile.

The Great Pyramid at Giza

Pyramid

The pyramids are the tombs of dead pharaohs. They were built with millions of heavy stone blocks.

Arts and crafts

Pottery jars and pots were made from river mud.

Pictures of everyday life were often painted on rich people's tombs.

Papyrus

was a marsh reed that was made into paper.

Toys

Egyptian children played with balls and spinning tops.

Afterlife

Egyptians believed in life after death. So dead bodies were carefully preserved. These are called mummies.

Cats were very important in Egypt. They were preserved, too.

Did you know?

Dead pharaohs were buried with food and drink to help them on their journey into the next life!

Pharaoh

The kings and queens of Egypt were called pharaohs. They were thought to be gods.

Queen Nefertiti

King Tutankhamun

Metal, such as bronze, was used to make items like mirrors and razors.

Lucky charm Pendant

Jewelry was worn by the wealthy. It was often made of gold.

