

Asia: culture

Did you know?

In Japan, people are employed to push passengers onto busy subway trains!

Industry, Japan

Japan is a world leader in producing televisions and other electrical and high-technology goods.

Television production line

Electronic circuit board

Factory workers

Eastern Asia

Many people in eastern Asia live on quiet farms. Others work in high-tech factories in busy cities.

Population

One-fifth of the world's population lives in China.

Culture

Buddhism is a very important religion in much of Southeast Asia.

Temple

Shadow puppets

have been popular entertainment in Indonesia for hundreds of years.

Lacquered goods, such as this plate, are made in Thailand.

Kimonos are traditional Japanese dress. These gowns are made of silk.

Village life

Many Asian people live in small, country villages. They farm the land in traditional ways.

Rubber trees

In Malaysia, the sap from rubber trees is collected and turned into rubber.

Food and drink

Rice, tea, and wheat are grown in the region. Fresh fish is a very important food.

Jasmine tea

Rice

Raw fish dish

Korean dish

Folk music is very popular. The nomads of Mongolia sing to the music of a fiddle.

Fiddle

