

Australasia: culture

The people of Australasia have different lifestyles. Some still lead a traditional life, far from the nearest town. Others live busy lives in modern, crowded cities.

Sports

Rugby is a very popular sport in Fiji.

Sydney Opera House

This modern opera house overlooks Sydney Harbour. Most cities in Australia are on the coast.

White-tiled roofs

The arched roofs look like the sails of yachts.

Sydney Harbour

Mining

Mining is important. Gold, gemstones, coal, iron, and copper are all mined in Australia.

Gold

Opal

Farming

Wool from sheep farms is sold all over the world. Tamarillo Orange

Peach

Fruit farming suits New Zealand's warm, wet climate.

Tourism

The stunning scenery and relaxing lifestyle attract many tourists.

Did you know?

Some Australian farms are so large, farmers use planes to get across them.

Aboriginal and Maori people

Aboriginal people settled in Australia more than 50,000 years ago.

Aboriginal bark painting

Maori people came to New Zealand over 1,000 years ago.

Maori carving

