

Dance

Types of dance

Thai dances are graceful. They were first performed in temples.

Rock and roll dance began in America in the 1950s.

Native American dances all have special meanings.

Country-and-western dance is popular and lots of fun.

Folk dances are the old, traditional dances of a country.

Dancing is moving your body to music. People dance alone, with a partner, or in groups. There are dancing styles around the world.

Spanish flamenco

Flamenco dancing comes from Spain. The dancers stamp and whirl to the music of a guitar.

Long, colorful dresses

Flowers are worn in hair.

Castanets are cliked in a rhythm.

Dancers toss their heads.

Did you know?

A limbo dancer once danced under a bar just 6 in (15 cm) off the ground.

Competition dancing

Ballroom dancers are judged on their steps, style, and grace.

Disco dancers are judged on their energy and original movements.

Ballet

Ballet tells stories through dance. It has five basic body positions that combine into many movements.

Ballet dancers are strong and fit. They train for many years.

