

Music

Types of music

Popular music is fun and catchy. It is often good for dancing.

Nursery rhymes are simple songs for young children.

Choral music is usually religious. It is sung by groups called choirs.

Classical music is written by composers for instruments in an orchestra.

Music in the home
Most people listen to recorded music at home.

Compact disc

Personal stereo

Radio

Music is a pattern of sounds made by musical instruments and human voices. People enjoy different kinds of music all over the world.

African music

African music is based on strong rhythms – perfect for dancing to.

Wooden drums beat out the rhythm.

Musical notes

Music is written on a set of lines, using notes instead of words.

Dancing to the beat

Indian music

Indian music has a haunting sound. It is often played on a sitar.

Moroccan music

Moroccan music is often based around folk stories and dance.

Mexican music

Mexican bands play traditional folk music on violins and guitars.

Did you know?

The German composer Beethoven was only three when he performed his first piece of music!

