

North America: culture

Did you know?

Some Canadians flood their backyards in winter to make ice hockey rinks!

Forestry, Canada

Forestry is one of Canada's most important industries. The pine trees are made into timber and paper.

Truck carries logs to sawmill.

Felled trees

Farming

Canada's farmers raise cattle or grow huge fields of wheat on the prairies.

Industry

Mining is important. Most of the world's zinc and nickel is mined here.

Zinc

Nickel

Oil is drilled in Alaska. It is then transported south along the world's longest pipeline.

Canada and Alaska

This huge landmass has a small population. Most of the people live in cities in the warmer south.

Fishing

Fishing in Canada's lakes and oceans is a popular sport and an important industry.

Culture

The maple leaf is the national emblem of Canada.

Ice hockey is a popular winter sport, and is followed by many fans.

Native Americans were the first people to live in Canada.

Many French-speaking Canadians live in the province of Quebec.

Rodeos celebrate the skills and courage of cowboys.

