

Religion

The Bible is the Christian holy book.

Christianity

Christians worship one god. They believe that God's son, Jesus Christ, lived on Earth about 2,000 years ago.

The Christian symbol is a cross.

Mary, mother of Jesus

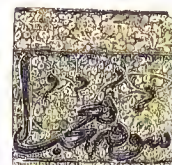

Angels

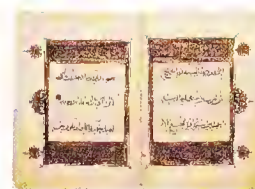

There are five main world religions. Christians, Jews, and Muslims believe in one god, Hindus believe in many, and Buddhists do not worship a god.

Did you know?

Followers of Jainism believe in protecting all living things. They wear masks to stop insects going in their mouths.

Sacred words on an Islamic tile

The Koran is the Muslim holy book.

Some muslims pray on a mat.

Islam

The religion of Islam began with the prophet Muhammed. Followers of Islam are called Muslims. They worship one god.

Judaism

Judaism was the first religion to believe in one god, about 4,000 years ago. Its followers are called Jews.

Men wear skullcaps.

Candles for a Jewish festival

A shrine, for prayers at home

Snake mask to chase off evil

Hinduism

Hinduism is an Asian religion. The followers called Hindus, worship many gods.

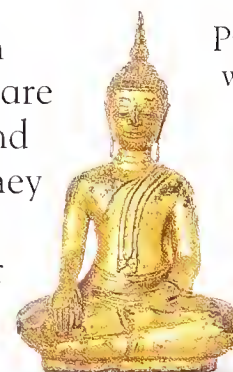

The Hindu God Shiva

Buddhism

Buddhism began in India. Its followers are called Buddhists and believe that they will be born again after they die.

The Buddhist wheel of life

The Buddha was a prince who became a monk.

Prayer wheel

Places of worship

Each religion has special buildings in which people get together to pray. They are guided by a religious leader.

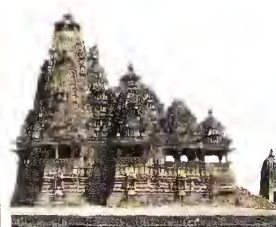

Christian church

Muslim mosque

Buddhist temple

Hindu temple

Jewish synagogue

