

Africa: culture

Culture

Textiles are bold and colorful. This carpet was made in Morocco.

Dance and music are an important and popular part of African village life.

Crafts, such as wood carving, are practiced all over Africa.

Africa is home to millions of people. Most of them live in small villages and farm the land, but more and more are moving to the cities.

Market

Many towns in Africa have a daily market, where people gather to buy and sell goods and chat with friends.

Minerals

There are gold and diamond mines in southern and western Africa.

Tourism

Thousands of tourists visit Africa to see its magnificent landscape and wildlife.

Buyer

Farming

Many Africans still use traditional farming methods to grow food crops such as corn.

Farmer in Zimbabwe

Corn

Wheat couscous

Towns and cities

Cities in Africa are growing quickly as people leave their villages to look for work.

Cairo

Village houses are made with a mix of dried mud and straw baked hard in the sun.

Shantytowns are home to the very poor. The shelters have no water or electricity.

Did you know?

In Chad, more than 40,000 people have to share one doctor.

