

Asia: culture

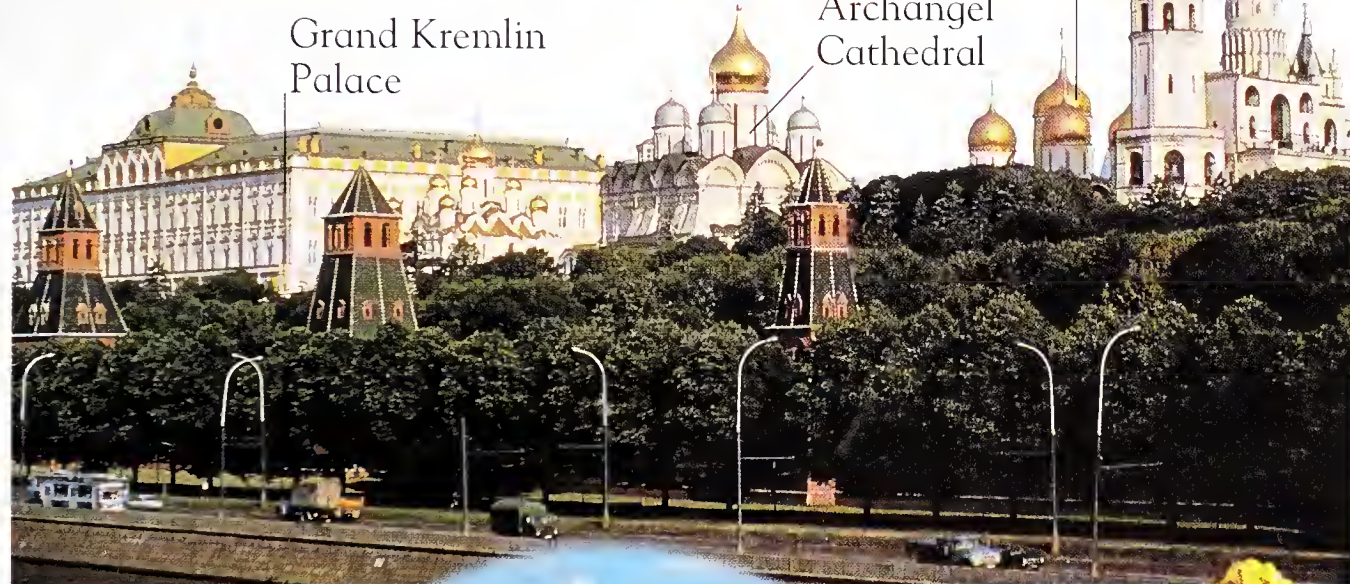

Did you know?

In winter, Siberian children stand under sun lamps. It's meant to keep them healthy.

Kremlin, Moscow

The Kremlin was once home to the Russian Czars. It now houses the government.

Grand Kremlin Palace

Assumption Cathedral
Archangel Cathedral

Trans-Siberian railway

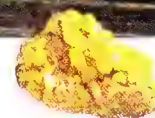

This railroad is the longest in the world. It reaches from one side of the country to the other.

Industry

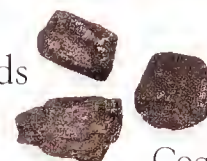

Heavy industries, such as iron and steel making, have led to problems with air pollution in the region.

Mining is very important. Coal, gold, and diamonds are all mined here.

Sulfur

Coal

Draniki is the national dish of Belarus. It is made from grated potatoes.

Bread is an important part of the Russian diet.

Caviar, the eggs of the sturgeon fish, is a very expensive delicacy.

Regional foods

Craftwork

Fur hat

Silk scarf

Russian dolls

Balalaika

Russian peoples

Different peoples, such as the Russian Cossacks and the Kyrgyz nomads, all have different customs.

Russian Cossacks

Kyrgyz nomads

