

Europe: culture

Did you know?

Vatican City is the smallest state in the world.

Vatican City, Rome

Vatican City, in Rome, is the headquarters of the Catholic Church.

Industry

Wine is made from grapes throughout this region.

Cork is made from the bark of the cork oak tree, which grows in Portugal.

Southern Europe

These countries are rich in history, and are world famous for their good food and wonderful wines.

Tourism

Ancient ruins, such as the temple of Apollo in Greece, are popular with tourists.

Beaches on the Mediterranean coast attract many tourists to southern Europe.

Fishing

Fishing is very important in Greece. The seas contain squid, sardines, and tunny fish.

Architecture

Châteaux are old castles that were built in France about 400 years ago.

Orthodox churches in Greece are richly decorated on the inside.

Greek houses have white walls to reflect the heat of the sun in summer.

Ancient buildings, like this tower, are found in Portugal.

Food

Southern Europe has many famous foods and dishes that are eaten worldwide.

Olive oil

Oranges

Paella

Cheese

Lamb kebabs

Pasta

