

CYGNUS

The Swan

Cross-shaped Cygnus depicts a flying swan, with an elongated neck. Its “head” is marked by Albireo: a telescope reveals it is a lovely gold and blue pair of stars.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 16th

BRIGHTEST STAR: Deneb

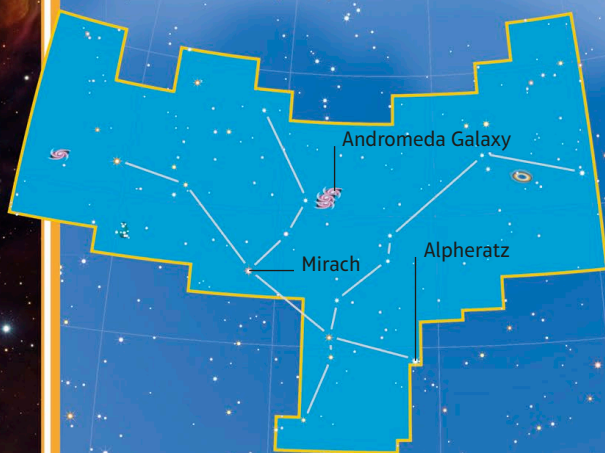

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE:
September – Northern hemisphere

ANDROMEDA

This constellation, named after a princess in Greek mythology, is home to the Andromeda Galaxy. It is the nearest spiral galaxy to Earth and is visible to the naked eye.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 19th

BRIGHTEST STARS: Alpheratz and Mirach

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE:
November – Northern hemisphere

