

PERSEUS

Perseus was a hero of Greek mythology who cut off the head of the evil Medusa. It is marked in the sky by Algol, which “winks” as one star regularly hides its companion.

DATA FILE

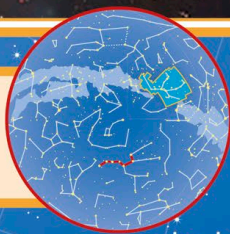

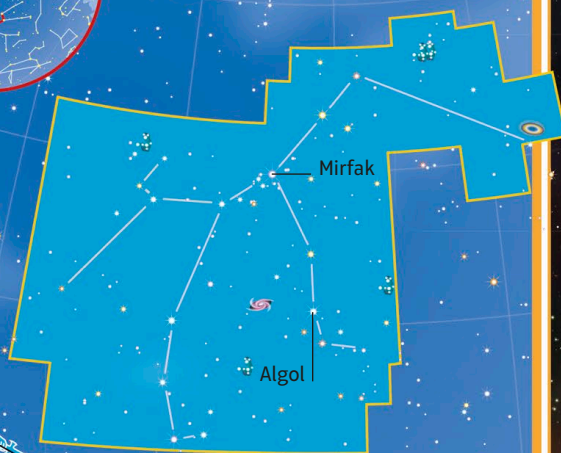

SIZE RANKING: 24th

BRIGHTEST STAR: Mirfak

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE:
December – Northern hemisphere

ARIES

The Ram

Aries represents a ram with a golden fleece in Greek mythology. The constellation's most obvious feature is a crooked line of three stars south of Triangulum, the brightest star of which is Hamal.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 39th

BRIGHTEST STAR: Hamal

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE:
December – Northern hemisphere

