

SAGITTARIUS

The Archer

Sagittarius depicts the celestial archer who is half-man, half-horse – though its main stars resemble a teapot (shown in purple). It includes the Lagoon, Trifid, and Omega Nebulae.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 15th

BRIGHTEST STARS: Kaus Australis and Nunki

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE: August – Southern hemisphere

SCORPIUS

The Scorpion

In Greek mythology, Scorpius was the scorpion whose sting caused Orion's death. This constellation holds the star clusters M6 and M7 in its starry tail, and includes the giant star Antares.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 33rd

BRIGHTEST STAR: Antares

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE: July – Southern hemisphere

