

NORMA

The Set Square

Lying in the Milky Way, Norma contains several star clusters. With the naked eye you can spot the cluster NGC 6087, centred on a yellow supergiant that pulsates.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 74th

BRIGHTEST STAR: Gamma Normae

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE: July – Southern hemisphere

TRIANGULUM AUSTRALE

The Southern Triangle

One of the most distinctive constellations near the south pole, the southern triangle has three stars of almost equal brightness marking the corners of an equal-sided triangle.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 83rd

BRIGHTEST STAR: Atria

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE: July – Southern hemisphere

