

ARA

The Altar

Named after the mythological altar on which the gods of Mount Olympus swore an oath of loyalty before fighting the Titans, Ara contains the remarkable NGC 6193, a cluster rich in young stars.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 63rd

BRIGHTEST STAR: Beta Arae

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE: July – Southern hemisphere

CORONA AUSTRALIS

The Southern Crown

A distinct curve of faint stars, Corona Australis represents a wreath of green leaves. The globular cluster NGC 6541 is an interesting object that can be seen with a small telescope.

DATA FILE

SIZE RANKING: 80th

BRIGHTEST STAR: Alphecca Meridiana

MONTH WHEN BEST VISIBLE: August – Southern hemisphere

