

THE SUN'S FAMILY

The Solar System is our home in space. This is the Sun's family, a community of eight planets, plus millions of tiny bodies, such as comets and asteroids. The planets are divided into two groups: small, rocky worlds like Earth, which orbit close to the Sun; and, further out, the "gas giants", which are huge bodies cloaked in vast atmospheres of gas.

