

NEIL ARMSTRONG

1930-2012

A former test-pilot renowned for his calmness under pressure, Neil Armstrong commanded Apollo 11, the first manned mission to the Moon, in 1969. After a difficult landing, Armstrong then stepped onto the lunar surface saying, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."

A decade before becoming an astronaut, Armstrong flew 78 combat missions in the Korean War.
