

BUZZ ALDRIN

Born 1930

Buzz Aldrin flew for the United States Air Force and became a Doctor of Science before joining NASA. He was the pilot of the Apollo 11 lander and became the second man to walk on the Moon. He described the bare lunar landscape as "magnificent desolation".

Aldrin was the pilot of the lunar module, which was named "Eagle".

DATA FILE

KEY ACHIEVEMENT: Second man to walk on the Moon

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN: United States

YEAR OF ACHIEVEMENT: 1969