

BLACK KNIGHT

DANE WHITMAN is a descendant of Sir Percy of Scandia, one of King Arthur's Knights of the Round Table. Merlin the Magician gave Sir Percy the Ebony Blade, a virtually indestructible enchanted sword. The Ebony Blade was passed down the generations until Dane's uncle, a scientist named Nathan Garrett, acquired it. He became the criminal Black Knight and joined Baron Zemo's Masters of Evil.

THE NOBLE KNIGHT

Mortally injured battling Iron Man, Nathan begged Dane to use the power of the Black Knight for good. Dane tried to warn the Avengers that Magneto had captured Quicksilver and the Scarlet Witch, but they mistook him for his evil uncle and attacked him. However, Dane eventually proved his loyalty to the team and the new Black Knight was invited to join the Avengers.

Heart of Stone

The Black Knight then had the misfortune to fall in love with the Enchantress. She cast a spell on him that turned his body to stone and exiled his spirit to the 12th century. Doctor Druid rescued him from history's dustbin and Dane rejoined the Avengers. Dane pledged himself to Sersi and went into voluntary exile with her when she left this plane of reality.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

In times of trouble, Dane has often conjured up the spirit of Sir Percy, the original Black Knight, to ask him for advice.

Atomic Charger

The Black Knight rides a flying atomic steed built by the High Evolutionary for his Knights of Wundagore.

The Ebony Blade weighs nearly 50 lb (22.7 kg)

BLOOD CURSE

If the sword's owner sheds blood, the Ebony Blade will eventually corrupt him and force him to commit further murderous acts.
