

Clapping songs

If your baby is clapping now, sing lots of clapping songs such as "Patty-cake" and "If you're happy and you know it" for her to join in with you. Or sit your baby on the floor in front of you and try this action rhyme (you can also sing it to any tune). Why not have fun practicing together just before dinner time.

Clap, clap, clap your hands
Clap along with me,
Clap, clap, clap your hands
Until it's time for tea.

Additional verses:

Stamp, stamp, stamp your feet...
Pat, pat, pat your knees...
Touch, touch, touch your toes...

Gently hold her feet or hands in yours if she needs help to stamp her feet, pat her knees, or touch her toes. If she is enjoying herself, you may want to make up more verses, such as wiggling your hands, and let her watch and try to copy your actions.
