Sam and Monkey arrived at the jungle and looked up at the big trees. Then a long stick beside them moved. "Hide!" said Monkey. So Sam and Monkey hid until the long stick said "Hissssss." "Oh, it's only Snake," said Sam. "He's one of our favorite friends."

Sam and Monkey waved bye-bye to Snake. Then something in the jungle said "Squeak!" Monkey jumped into Sam's arms and Sam had to give Monkey a big hug. "Monkey, it's only a mouse. Let's go home for lunch." So Sam and Monkey went home and told everyone about meeting their favorite friends—and a mouse.
