

Head, shoulders, knees and toes

Slowly sing or say this rhyme and place your hands on the parts of your body as you mention them.

Help your baby to do the same.

Then repeat the rhyme a little more quickly to make you both laugh:

Head, shoulders,
knees and toes,
knees and toes.

Head, shoulders,
knees and toes,
knees and toes.

Eyes and ears and mouth and nose.

Head, shoulders,
knees and toes,
knees and toes!

learn to blow

Puff your cheeks out and blow gently on your baby's cheek, avoiding her eyes. She should enjoy the sensation. See if she can copy you by making a raspberry noise or taking a big breath out. Show her how you can blow a feather off the palm of your hand, or make a toy windmill's blades spin around, and let her try. Then read the story "The three little pigs" and demonstrate how to blow as you read. She may try to join in with you.
