

Jackson Hole

The beautiful, wild valley of Jackson Hole is perfect for people who love animal watching. In the town of Jackson, you can book a guided safari into Yellowstone or Grand Teton National Park, where you may spot elk, moose, deer, and all kinds of wildlife.

Mountains in Grand Teton National Park

The state flower of Wyoming is the Indian paintbrush.

Cheyenne Frontier Days

Cheyenne Frontier Days is one of the biggest and best rodeos around. Huge crowds come to watch and participate in events like bull riding and barrel racing. There's also music and dancing, and a museum about the Old West.

