

California redwoods

Hollywood may be home to famous actors, but northern California has its own celebrities—redwood trees. California's coastal redwoods are some of the tallest trees in the world. The tallest one on record was about the length of a football field! People come from around the world to marvel at these towering giants.

California culture

California is famous for lots of different things. Its coastline includes city beaches in the south, and wild, rocky coasts in the north. Countless movies are made in Hollywood, while Silicon Valley is home to many major worldwide companies, such as Google, Apple, and Netflix.

The California coastline bordering the Pacific Ocean

You can see lots of marine animals along the California coast.
