

Surfing

Hawaii is a surfer's paradise. Huge waves rise and crash against the seemingly endless coastline. Surfing began as a Polynesian tradition and was originally done on belly boards.

The North Shore on the island of Oahu is said to have the best surfing in Hawaii—and the world.

Pearl Harbor

On December 7, 1941, the Japanese military attacked US Navy troops at the Pearl Harbor military base, killing many soldiers. Every year, many visitors come to pay their respects at the USS Arizona Memorial in Honolulu.
