

US Virgin Islands

A cluster of islands in the Caribbean Sea, the US Virgin Islands are overflowing with natural beauty. Millions of visitors come each year to relax on warm sandy beaches and have fun snorkeling and diving.

Territory Facts

Abbreviation: USVI

Capital: Charlotte Amalie

Population: 106,000 people

Official language: English

Official bird: bananaquit

Blackbeard's Castle on St. Thomas in the US Virgin Islands

American Samoa

This territory is made up of five islands and two atolls—a type of coral reef with a lagoon in the middle. Most people live on the biggest island, Tutuila. The National Park of American Samoa is spread across Tutuila and two other islands, as well as the surrounding reefs.

Territory Facts

Abbreviation: AS

Capital: Pago Pago

Population: 55,000 people

Official languages: English and Samoan

Official tree: paogo

Corals off the coast of Ofu, an island in American Samoa