

Northern Mariana Islands

The Northern Mariana Islands are 14 tropical, volcanic islands in the North Pacific Ocean. The region has a very steady climate that doesn't change much throughout the year, but there is a dry season in the winter and a very wet season in the summer.

Territory Facts

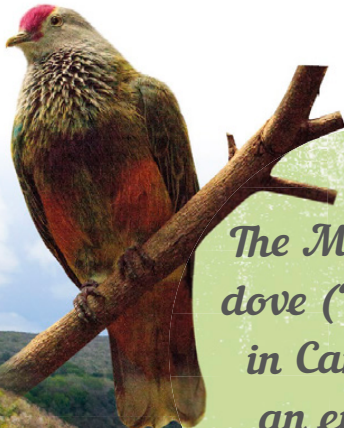

Abbreviation: CNMI

Capital: Saipan

Population: 58,000 people

Official languages: English, Chamorro, and Carolinian

Official bird: Mariana fruit dove

The Mariana fruit dove ("mwee'mwe" in Carolinian) is an endangered species.

The coastline of Saipan, the largest of the Northern Mariana Islands