

The von Trapp family

Music saved the von Trapp family. After the Nazis took over their home country of Austria, they fled to the US and made a living by singing together. The family settled in Stowe, Vermont, where they opened a beautiful ski lodge.

Winter sports

Imagine zipping down the side of a mountain, flying past trees across fresh, fluffy white snow. That exciting feeling is why millions of people flock to Vermont every winter to ski and snowboard! The steep slopes, heavy snowfall, and famous ski resorts make it a perfect winter wonderland!

Hitting the snowy slopes at Sugarbush Resort

*The majestic
Morgan horse is Vermont's state mammal.*

