

New Jersey

Interesting people and exciting events are what you'll find in New Jersey. Even the skies here are filled with fun, like during the yearly kite festival and the Atlantic City Airshow. New Jersey's notable residents have included Muhammad Ali and Albert Einstein.

The state bird for New Jersey is the eastern goldfinch.

State Facts

Abbreviation: NJ

Capital: Trenton

Nickname: The Garden State

Statehood: 1787, 3rd state

Population: 8.9 million people

State flower: violet

State animal: horse

New Jersey

The Atlantic City Airshow is held in mid-August.

Atlantic City Airshow

What could be cooler than high-speed jets doing awesome tricks in the sky! At the annual Atlantic City Airshow, skilled pilots show off jaw-dropping stunts for amazed crowds. The best views are from the Atlantic City Boardwalk.

Muhammad Ali

Heavyweight boxer Muhammad Ali was one of the greatest athletes of all time. He lived in New Jersey for many years, and was also a social activist who donated millions of dollars to charity.

