

Kite festival

If you visit New Jersey in May, keep your eye on the sky. You could spot octopi, sharks, and dragons flying overhead during the Wildwoods International Kite Festival—the country's largest kite festival. Some of the kites are so huge it takes an entire team to fly them!

*The Wildwoods
International
Kite Festival*

Albert Einstein

*Scientist Albert
Einstein lived in
New Jersey
for more than 20 years.*