

Louisiana

Louisiana is a place where ideas, people, and styles meet and mix together to become something new and exciting. Louisiana's unique blend of cultures has created its own traditions, beautiful architecture in cities like New Orleans, and the cool sounds of jazz.

State Facts

Abbreviation: LA

Capital: Baton Rouge

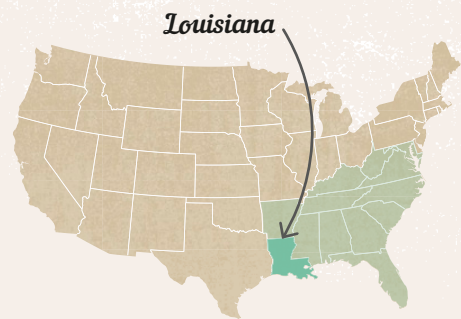

Nickname: The Pelican State

Statehood: 1812, 18th state

Population: 4.7 million people

State flower: magnolia

State animal: Louisiana black bear

A Mardi Gras parade float

Louisiana culture

Louisiana's music, food, customs, and even ways of speaking are all heavily influenced by the region's African, French, and Indigenous communities. Mardi Gras (or "Fat Tuesday" translated from the French) is a perfect example. It's a French celebration that has become an iconic Louisiana carnival.