The Midwest

The Midwest is often called “America’s Heartland” because it covers the middle region of the United States. The culture of the Midwest has been influenced by the many European immigrants who began to settle here in the 1600s. In addition to its plains, farmlands, and rolling hills, the Midwest is home to the incredible Great Lakes.
