

Ohio

Did you know that Ohio's shape resembles a heart? That's why its state slogan used to be "The Heart of it All." Today, its state slogan is "So Much to Discover," and Ohio really lives up to this claim! From rock and roll memorabilia to real military planes, there's a lot to discover in Ohio.

The Ohio state flag is the only US state flag not shaped like a rectangle.

State Facts

Abbreviation: OH

Capital: Columbus

Nickname: The Buckeye State

Statehood: 1803, 17th state

Population: 11.7 million people

State flower: red carnation

State animal: white-tailed deer

*Mitchell bomber aircraft at the Wright-Patterson
Air Force Base*