A young artist

Maya Lin is a celebrated designer and sculptor from Ohio. She has created very meaningful historical sculptures, such as the Vietnam Veterans War Memorial in Washington, D.C. Maya Lin was only 21 years old when her design for the memorial won a nationwide competition.

Maya Lin was a student at Yale University when her memorial design was chosen.

Awesome aircraft

Full of power, speed, and strength, the military aircraft at the Wright-Patterson Air Force Base are truly amazing! Right next door to the base lies the National Museum of the United States Air Force. Visitors can try an interactive ride that simulates (imitates) flying an Air Force combat plane!
