

Wisconsin

There is lots to love about Wisconsin. The Frank Lloyd Wright Trail is a must-see for art and architecture fans, and the Wisconsin Dells offers stunning views along the Wisconsin River. But Wisconsin may be most famous for its dairy farms, where it produces much of the nation's milk and cheese.

State Facts

Abbreviation: WI

Capital: Madison

Nickname: The Badger State

Statehood: 1848, 30th state

Population: 5.9 million people

State flower: wood violet

State bird: American robin

Dairy farms

If you like cheese, you'll love Wisconsin! The state's cheesemakers produce more than 300 kinds of cheese, and more than three billion pounds of it every year! Cheese has become a true symbol of the state: people who live in Wisconsin are even nicknamed "cheeseheads"!

