

Minnesota

State Facts

Abbreviation: MN

Capital: St. Paul

Nickname: Land of 10,000 Lakes

Statehood: 1858, 32nd state

Population: 5.7 million people

State tree: red pine

State bird: common loon

Busy city life and calm country living are what you'll find in Minnesota. Take in the sights of the bustling Twin Cities, or enjoy a relaxing camping trip in one of the state's many forests. And people here are proud to say that Minnesota is home to both the Peanuts gang and Paul Bunyan!

*Lake Superior
frozen in winter*

The state flower is the delicate pink and white lady slipper.

Twin Cities

It's rare to have two major cities next door to each other. That's why the neighboring cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis have the special nickname "The Twin Cities."

Minneapolis

St. Paul