

Iowa State Fair

The Iowa State Fair is one of the most well known state fairs in the country. There is live music as well as contests for farm animals and crops. One of the most famous traditions of this fair is the butter cow. It's a cow that is sculpted by artists using 600 lbs (272 kg) of pure butter!

As well as cows, people have also made butter sculpture of celebrities for the fair.

Chow's Gymnastics and Dance Institute

Des Moines, Iowa, is an important city for women who train in gymnastics and dance. It's home to a world famous academy run by Liang Chow, a former gymnast for the Chinese national team. He now coaches athletes at his institute and has trained several Olympic winners.
