

Missouri

There's a lot to see in the Show Me State! In addition to gorgeous landscapes and impressive wildlife, it's also home to the iconic Gateway Arch National Park, which draws millions of visitors each year. After seeing the sights, try some the state's world-famous barbecue.

Rocky Falls in Missouri

State Facts

Abbreviation: MO

Capital: Jefferson City

Nickname: The Show Me State

Statehood: 1821, 24th state

Population: 6.2 million people

State flower: white hawthorn

State mammal: Missouri mule

Natural beauty

Rattlesnakes, snapping turtles, and mountain lions are a few of the amazing animals native to Missouri. You might be lucky enough to spot wildlife in one of Missouri's gorgeous state parks.

Alligator-snapping turtle

