

Colorado

State Facts

Abbreviation: CO

Capital: Denver

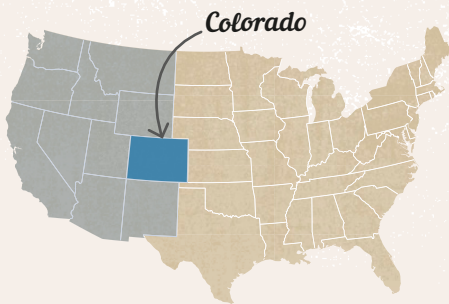

Nickname: The Centennial State

Statehood: 1876, 38th state

Population: 5.8 million people

State flower: white and lavender columbine

State bird: lark bunting

Whether it's hiking, skiing, or sightseeing, there's something in Colorado for everyone. It has alpine mountains, rugged canyons, and vast grasslands. Keep an eye out for the bald eagles that soar high above the Rocky Mountains, or explore the ruins of the Mesa Verde National Park.

Skiing in the Rocky Mountains in Colorado

The Rocky Mountains

Outdoor lovers are thrilled with stunning views as they hike, mountain climb, ski, snowboard, and white water raft through the amazing Rocky Mountain landscapes. Bighorn sheep, bears, and wolverines are some of the local animals.

*Rocky mountain
bighorn sheep
is the state mammal
of Colorado.*

