

At the zoo with the twos

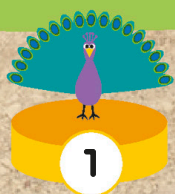

Lots of things come in twos – socks, shoes, hands, feet, eyes, and ears. Can you think of anything else?

How many penguins are there in this icy enclosure?
They're standing in pairs so let's count them in 2s:

2 4 6 8 10

It's feeding time at the zoo.
The zookeeper must feed the animals in the even-numbered pens.
Which animals are these?

How many pairs of flamingos are there?
