

To use:

Read through the story with your child. At the end of each sentence prompt your child to find the matching picture or missing word and attach it to the reading page.

